E. H. Humphrey holds the local record to date on deer, having shot a buck this morning which weighed a full 400 pounds. The head is a handsome one but is somewhat of a freak as there is an additional horn growing from the skull to nearly the full length of the regular horn on that side. The buck was slain in Waterbury. Two of the sons of Asa Magoon of Orange were successful in bringing down bucks. E. McPherson Laws of this city made a good shot this morning and brought down a 200-pound buck in East Moretown.
